THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISNEY

Then there was Pooh's friend, Rabbit, who lived in a hole in the ground. Rabbit always had a few jars of honey in his house. The only trouble was, Rabbit's front door was just barely big enough for a hungry bear to slip through. A bear with a tummy full of honey couldn't get out again...

Winnie the Pooh was a stuffed bear who lived in the Hundred Acre Wood with his other animal friends and Christopher Robin. Pooh's problem was he loved to eat honey. He never had enough. So he had to think up all sorts of schemes for getting honey. But, unfortunately, he was a bear of very little brain. So schemes he thought up usually got him into trouble.

For instance, there was a tree in the Wood that was called the honey tree because bees lived in it. Pooh went calling on the bees, but they gave him a hot reception...
