VIEW-MASTER REEL THREE

But all of Hoss' problems are finally solved in as spectacular a Fourth of July as the Ponderosa had seen. It involved Hoss with a broomstick, a 16th century Chinese warrior and a buckboard full of fireworks . . .

VIEW-MASTER REEL ONE

The new railroad spur into the Ponderosa was progressing nicely, a gala Fourth of July was approaching and all was well with the Cartwrights as they rode into their ranch. But the Wells-Fargo had left a strange package for Hoss— an Oriental bride!

VIEW-MASTER REEL TWO

Hoss soon discovered that his "fancée" spoke English and spelled trouble. He found himself facing a food shortage, a bomb and a kidnapping—with himself as the victim!
